

HOP into SAVINGS

Personality Quiz

Find out if you're a LAMB, CHICK, or BUNNY with your money!

1. My piggy bank has $10 in it. I'm going to:
  - a. Keep it there and add more money to it.
  - b. Take it out and buy something for my new baby sister.
  - c. Buy myself a toy at the dollar store and give the rest to my local animal hospital.
2. There are only $2 in my piggy bank. I want to:
  - a. Leave the $2 there and add more money to my piggy bank.
  - b. Bring the $2 with me to the beach and buy myself an ice cream cone.
  - c. Buy snacks at the 5th-grade class' fundraiser to help them meet their goal.
3. A new kid in school just lost her favorite toy so I:
  - a. Tell her I'm sorry she lost her toy and sell her one of my extra toys for a quarter, which I can add to my piggy bank.
  - b. Take my piggy bank and buy myself another toy, so that I'll have another one to play with if I lose one.
  - c. Invite my new friend over to play with my toys.
4. When Mom or Dad give me $1 for doing a chore around the house, I:
  - a. Add it to my piggy bank, and do more chores to earn more money to save it in my piggy bank.
  - b. Take it with me to school and buy my best friend a snack during lunch.
  - c. Give it to my brother or sister so he or she can put it into his or her piggy bank.

5. The uniform I need to play on the sports team costs $50. So far, I have $30 in my piggy bank. I'm going to:
- Keep the $30 there until I save enough money for the uniform.
  - Take the $30 out of my piggy bank and use it to buy sports trading cards for myself and my friends on the team.
  - Hold a bake sale that raises $200 and use the extra money to start a sports equipment fund for other kids.
6. My piggy bank is overflowing. I'm going to:
- Get a bigger piggy bank, of course!
  - Take all the money out and spend it!
  - Take some of the money to my teacher for our classroom holiday party.
7. I just found $1 in my backpack! I'm going to:
- Put it in my piggy bank.
  - Buy myself something right now. Yippee!
  - Donate it to my favorite charity.
8. My friend is selling lemonade and is using the money she earns to buy books for the local library. I'd like to:
- Leave my money alone but help her sell the lemonade.
  - Say "hi" as I walk by on my way to the movie theater, where I'm using my piggy bank money to buy myself some popcorn!
  - Take some money out of my piggy bank and buy some lemonade to help her cause.

Total A's _____

Total B's _____

Total C's _____

If you had mostly A's, you're a...

SAVING LAMB

You're like the lamb with your money—pure and thoughtful. You save carefully and like to watch your money grow, just like new spring grass. Lambs are symbols of renewal, and your good saving habits help prepare you for the future. By putting your money in a safe place, you're making sure you'll have enough for what you need—and maybe even something to share with others one day.

If you had mostly B's, you're a...

SPENDING CHICK

Like a chick stepping into the world, you're excited to explore new things—and that includes spending your money! Chicks represent fresh starts, and you enjoy using your money to treat yourself and others to fun surprises. Just don't forget—saving a little first can help you enjoy even more down the road. Starting smart spending habits now can lead to even bigger adventures later!

If you had mostly C's, you're a...

SHARING BUNNY

You're a generous bunny with your money—always ready to share. Bunnies are often shown giving out Easter eggs and goodies, just like how you like to give to others. You know how great it feels to help a friend or support a good cause. Just remember to take care of your own needs too—by saving a little before you give, you'll be able to keep sharing for a long time to come!

